

VENETIAN FLOORS

Tourists in Venice stroll around with their noses stuck up in the air, enraptured by the lavish buildings. But they are losing half of the show. If they looked down, they would spot a carpet of stones, marble, mosaic and glass. The German photographer Sebastian Erras has walked around Venice to capture its most beautiful floors.

click on the icons for google maps

- Palaces
- Museums
- Schools
- Shops
- "Calli"
- The Theatre
- Cafes
- Libraries
- Sebastian Inspiration

